

The People's Theater is casting for the following roles
For their public reading of *A Raisin in the Sun

Travis Younger -

Ten Years Old. Walter and Ruth's Son. He is the upcoming generation of the Younger Family. He represents the promise of where the family could go, and is Walter's saving grace by the end of the show. He is a charming, and precocious little man, and often adds much needed levity to the show.*

Karl Linder –

Mid 30's or older. White. The "Welcoming Committee" for Clybourne Park, the all-white neighborhood that the Younger's are planning to move into. His hidden is to convince the Younger's not to move there, as he, and others are afraid it will create a divide.

*A Parent or Guardian must be the one to submit for this role, and be willing to sign the child's agreement to participate in the reading.

There will be one virtual rehearsal on Tuesday, July 19th, from 6:30 PM – 10:00 PM, and an in-person appearance for the reading on Wednesday, July 27th, at Heist Brewery Barrel Arts, in which you will need to be available from 5:30 PM – 10:30 PM.

There are stipends available for each performer.

If interested, please send a headshot, and resume to info@peepstheater.com with the subject: RAISIN CASTING.
